

Lois Stovall-Williams
2532 Las Corrales Court
Virginia Beach, VA 23456-4200

Dr. Williams earned a Ph.D. in Higher Education/School Psychology from the University of Connecticut, a Master of Arts in Counseling and Psychology from Loyola College, and a Bachelor of Science from Morgan State University. Dr. Williams engaged in further study at Oxford University Schools of Education.

Dr. Williams is an active member of the Commission on Education Reform. Her latest books WISDOM IS BETTER THAN STRENGTH (2008), Publish America.

Dr. Williams attended Women of the Future Summit 2012, Oxford University , London England -May 16th 2012

Private Equity Forum, University of Oxford, SAID School of Business, March 5, 2013
Married: Anderson James Williams, Jr. MD, retired, a Service Disabled Veteran

Dr. Williams is an education and training specialist/Quality Assurance and Administrative Project Manager

Wiltex Incorporated, a company that specializes in acquiring federal contracts in education, healthcare, professional and administrative services, technical assistance, and instructional assessment .

Wiltex personnel possess a unique understanding of DoD Contract Management, practice, process and regulations applicable to DoD systems and/or services acquisition management; An understanding of the latest changes/issues (teaming) and the contracting professional's role as a business advisor to the customer; and an in-depth knowledge of contracts/business management. We possess experience in and knowledge of techniques, approaches, and quality assurance and compliance issues required organizing and implementing good contract management practices, with a demonstrated understanding of both the theoretical and practical aspects of contract management.

Dr. Williams served as the President of Knoxville College, Knoxville, TN. In the capacity of President, Dr. William's organizational operation was within the boundaries established by Board policies and Executive Limitations.

In addition, Dr. Williams has served as the Dean of Instruction at Passaic County Community College, where she demonstrated knowledge and skills relative to traditional and new pedagogical theories, applications, and processes which relate to effective teaching across the disciplines. Dr. Williams provided knowledge and skills in effective teaching strategies, peer coaching and mentoring skills, strong communication, public relations, and interpersonal skills and the ability to evaluate instructional programs and teaching effectiveness.

Further, she served as Professor of Education and Director of Faculty Development at Hampton University [teaching and research activities], and Professor of Psychology at Norfolk State University, and Education Advisor to Africa.

Dr. Williams served on the Board of Trustees, Old Dominion University, and a member of the School Board of the City of Virginia Beach among other prestigious appointments on the State and National levels in Education.